

Established in 1948, the Gate City Bar Association is the oldest African American Bar Association in the State of Georgia. The Gate City Bar Association was organized by ten African American lawyers to provide the educational, social and community involvement of a professional association for African American lawyers, who had been excluded from participating in the segregated bar associations in Atlanta and throughout the State. The mission of the Gate City Bar Association is to create in the community a practical appreciation for the legal profession; to encourage persons of outstanding promise to attend first rate law schools and return to the communities that need their services most; to oppose arbitrary and capricious laws in our state with all the force and fiber of which we are capable as an organization; to uphold and extend the principles of justice in every phase of American life to the end that no one shall be discriminated against because of color, race, religious beliefs or national origin.

Gate City Bar Association's Justice Robert Benham Law Camp
hosted by the Georgia State University College of Law

The Gate City Bar Association's Justice Robert Benham Law Camp is designed to expose minority high school students in the Atlanta area to the field of law. Eligible students, rising 10th, 11th, and 12th grade students (for the 2008-2009 school year), must be interested in pursuing law as a career and committed to actively participating in the camp's three week program. Students will be exposed to practicing minority lawyers and judges, be given an opportunity to tour various legal institutions like the state and superior courts and the Georgia Supreme Court and Georgia Court of Appeals, be provided instruction on the basics of critical thinking and various areas of law, and be provided an opportunity to work in a legal environment during the internship phase of the program. The 2008 Law Camp will be held June 9 to June 27, 2008 and hosted by Georgia State University's College of Law located in downtown Atlanta in the Urban Life Building on 140 Decatur Street, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. Georgia State University's College of Law in conjunction with Clark Atlanta University's Educational Talent Search Program are partnering with the Gate City Bar Association to provide support to this summer's program.

Candidates for the Law Camp will be selected through a two-tier process including review of an application and associated documentation, as well as a rigorous interview. During this interview, the Selection Committee will explore the applicant's background, commitment to and interest in pursuing law as a career, academic performance, community involvement and other activities or circumstances the Selection Committee decides are necessary to determine if the candidate can benefit from the experiences to be provided at Law Camp. The candidate must be a responsible, independent, and mature person who can be relied upon to attend the Law Camp's daily activities and perform the homework assigned during the Law Camp leaning sessions.

The attached biographical application, a copy of the candidate's transcript and the candidate's personal essay, will be used by the Selection Committee to select participants in the Law Camp. If selected, there are no fees or expenses required of the candidate for tuition for the Law Camp. Parent(s)/guardian(s) are responsible for transporting students to and from the law camp and internships. Students must wear business casual attire for all camp activities. All students must be punctual or they will be subject to being removed from the program. The Law Camp will take place at Georgia State University, June 9-20, 2008 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Internships will take place June 23-27, 2008, in a legal practice environment from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Completed Law Camp applications and all associated materials must be received no later than 5:00 p.m. on April 25, 2008, at 1180 Peachtree St. N.E., Atlanta, GA 30309, addressed to the attention of Harold E. Franklin, Jr. Applications and associated materials may also be submitted electronically to gatecitylawcamp@kslaw.com by the above deadline. Any questions may be emailed to gatecitylawcamp@kslaw.com or may be left in the Gate City Law Camp voicemail box at (404) 572-2426. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered. All candidates selected for an interview will be notified on Friday, May 2, 2008 by phone, email, or U.S. Mail to arrange an interview time. The Selection Committee will conduct interviews on Saturday, May 10, 2008, in Atlanta, Georgia. Candidates will be notified by phone, email, or U.S. Mail of their selection after the interviews.

In addition to the completed application, candidates must provide an official high school transcript, proof of good standing from his or her school, and two letters of recommendation. The author of each letter must identify their relationship to the applicant, how long he or she has known the applicant, and in what capacity. The letter should be addressed to the Gate City Bar Association's Justice Robert Benham Law Camp. The letters may be attached to the application or the author may send the letters directly to the Justice Robert Benham Law Camp Selection Committee, c/o Gate City Bar Association, 1180 Peachtree St. N.E., Atlanta, GA 30309, to the attention of Harold E. Franklin, Jr. Recommendation letters received after April 25, 2008, 5:00 p.m. will not be considered. Incomplete application packages will not be reviewed for selection.

Candidates selected to participate will be notified on Friday, May 16, 2008.
